Gregory Garth Brown

Brown & Charbonneau LLP

When it comes to civil trials and lawsuits, Irvine trial attorney Gregory Garth Brown has developed a well-earned reputation for finding solutions to litigation problems.

Brown discovered his life ambition of being an attorney after his grandfather, a dentist, suggested that he should be a professional. Brown received his law degree from the University of San Diego School of Law. Since then, he has been practicing law as a litigation attorney for 23 years in Irvine. He is a State Board Certified Trial Specialist. He has been named to Super Lawyers for three years straight and has an AVVO 10.0 rating. He was also a Trial Lawyer of the Year Finalist for the Orange County Trial

Lawyers Association.

He is a founding partner of the firm Brown & Charbonneau LLP.

"We want to be the 'go to' trial law firm," he says. "We will continue our tradition in Orange County as a firm that is well known and well respected by other attorneys and judges."

He has also received accolades for his community service.

"I pride myself in staying active and helping in the community," he says. For over a decade, he was on the board of directors of the Orangewood Children's Foundation/PALS and was its vice chairman of the board in 2007. "We also support the Orange County Public Law Center and the Constitutional Rights Foundation."

Brown has secured or saved clients more than $80,000,000 in awards and settlements. He obtained a $4.9 million trial award for a client, and successfully defended a Fortune 500 company in a $50 million fraud and punitive damage claim. It's Brown's leadership and dedication to the law and community that makes Brown & Charbonneau LLP such a successful firm.

"We are aggressive and focus on the best result obtainable as quickly as possible," he says. "We are responsive, get back to our clients, and get results." ■
